Hi Shane,

I want to thank you for the excellent training you did for Aspen Malaysia team. The doctors are now very impressed with the professionalism of our sales representatives and their ability to carry out good consultative selling. This is an important differentiating factor for Aspen as it is no longer enough to have good products. The team is now able to tailor the position of Aspen products to the health care professionals as a solution to their practice. We are positive that we will achieve our targets despite having a challenging environment.

Regards.
